

Introduction

This section of the Budget is designed to assist readers with interpreting and understanding the content of the Governor's annual budget proposal. Included are brief descriptions of the major sections of the Governor's Budget, a guide to reading the financial tables included in the budget summaries, and a brief description of New Jersey's budget process.

Background

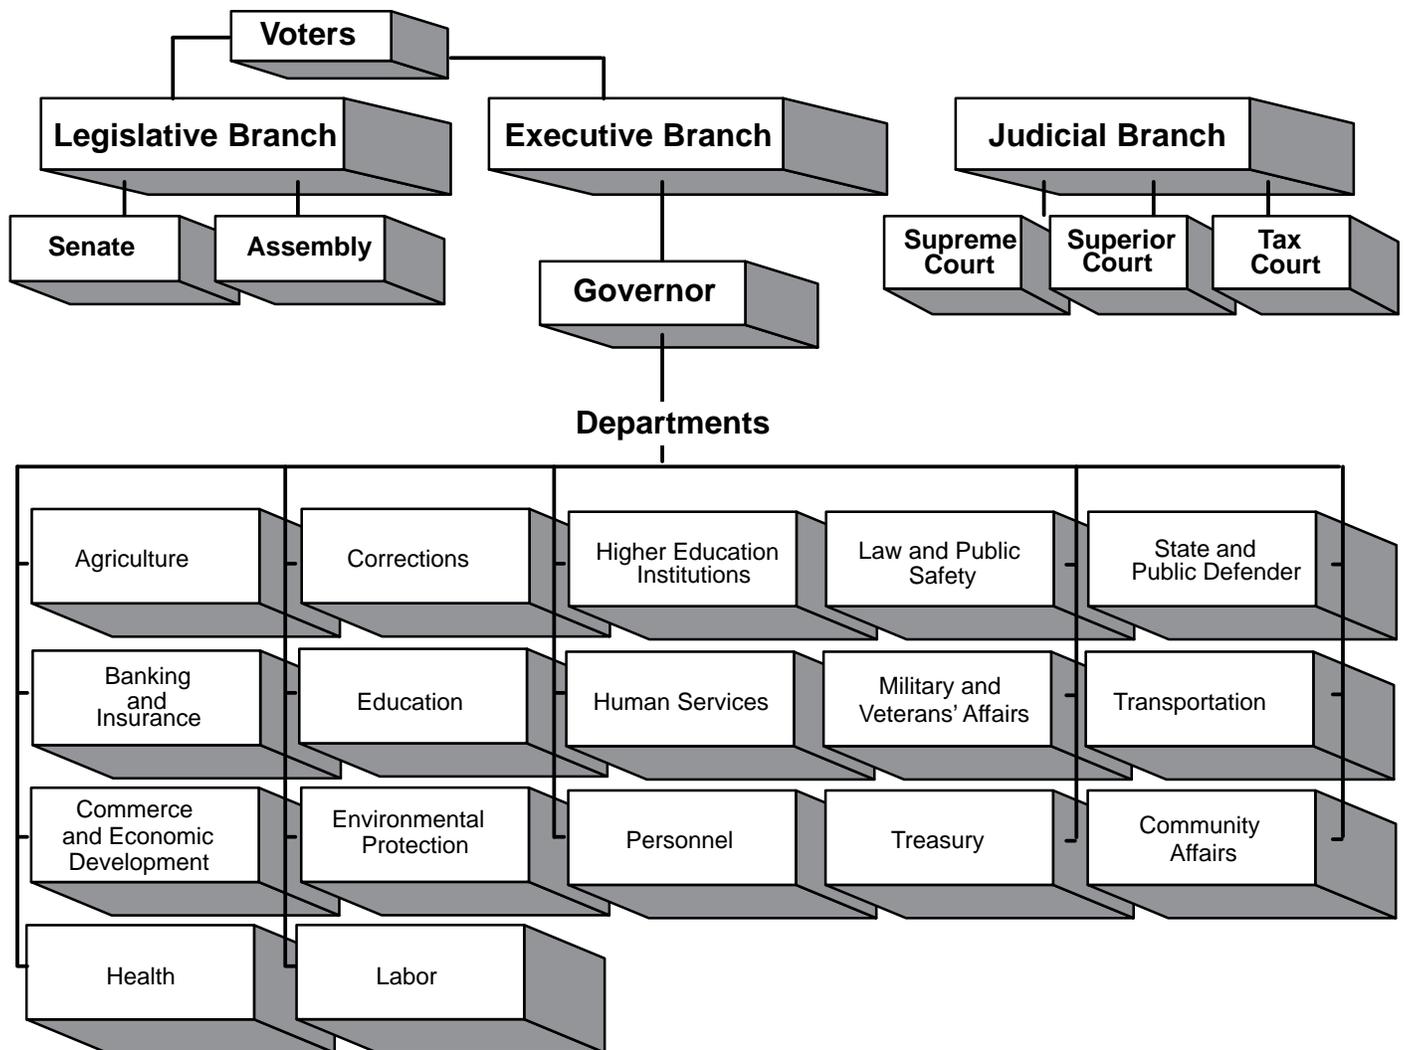

The State of New Jersey was one of the original thirteen colonies, and was the third state to ratify the United States Constitution in 1787. New Jersey's governmental structure is similar to the federal model, with three separate branches of government – a Legislative Branch, a Judicial Branch and an Executive Branch. The original State Constitution was adopted on July 2, 1776 and was subsequently superseded in 1844 and 1947.

The Constitution of the State requires a balanced budget and restricts State long-term borrowing to one percent of total appropriations, unless higher amounts are specifically approved by voters at a general election. Short-term borrowing to cover cash flow needs, provided such borrowing is repaid within the same fiscal year, is not prohibited by the Constitution, and is authorized in the Annual Appropriations Act.

A State Government Organization chart is provided below:

THE STATE BUDGET PROCESS

The fiscal year for New Jersey State government, which includes the Legislature, the Judiciary, and all Executive Branch departments and agencies, is from July 1 to June 30 of the following year. For example, "fiscal year 1998" refers to the fiscal year ending June 30, 1998 (The federal government's fiscal year begins October 1, and ends on September 30.)

In the past, the budget process in New Jersey has had several variations, including Zero Based Budgeting (ZBB) and the Planning, Programming and Budgeting System (PPBS).

The current process, the Integrated Planning and Budgeting Process, uses several of the key features of all previous budget processes, and is designed to result in planning driven budgets. Implementation of the process usually begins during the month of April some fifteen months prior to the year for which the budget will be effective.

The planning framework that begins this process each year includes reviews of the Governor's program priorities, economic forecasts, demand assumptions and analyses of selective program areas. General guidance is provided to each State agency, usually in August – September.

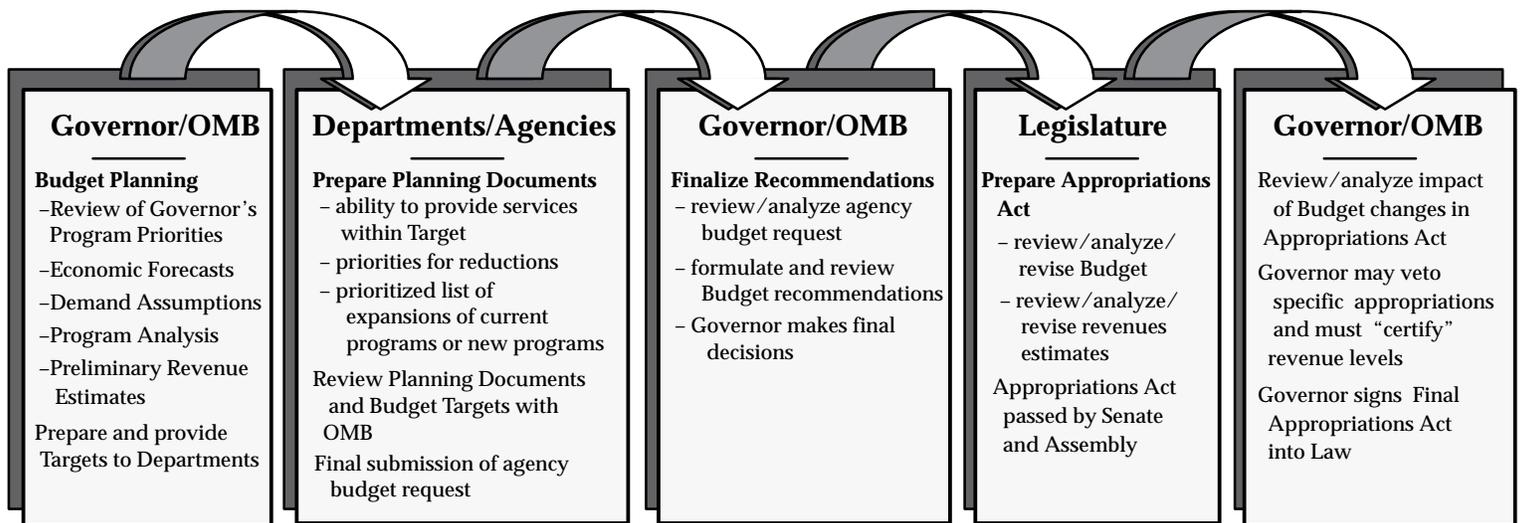

Agencies prepare planning documents which describe (1) their ability to provide current services within the budget target, (2) the agencies' priorities for reduction of current services if requested, and (3) priority packages representing either expansion of current programs or new programs. The Office of Management and Budget (OMB) reviews the planning documents with the agencies and budget targets are agreed upon. The planning portion of the process is then culminated by the final submission of the agency budget request to OMB.

During the months of December and January, the Director of the Office of Management and Budget reviews budget recommendations with the Governor, the State Treasurer and the Governor's staff. The Governor makes the final decisions in January. The Budget Message, representing the Governor's recommendations on how revenues should be allocated, is delivered to the Legislature on or before the third Tuesday following the first meeting of the State Legislature, except in the year when the Governor is inaugurated, when it must be transmitted on or before February 15 (although the Legislature may extend this deadline under unusual circumstances). From year to year, the Budget probably is the single most important policy statement that the Governor makes.

The Legislature, through a series of hearings conducted by its Appropriations Committees, reviews the Budget and makes changes. The Legislature also reviews the revenue estimates included in the Governor's Budget, and based upon several additional months of actual revenue collections in the current fiscal year, makes adjustments to the Budget's revenue projections and surplus estimates. The Budget, including changes made by the Legislative Committees, must then be approved by the Senate and the Assembly; and, according to the New Jersey Constitution, a balanced budget must be approved and signed by the Governor before July 1. After the Legislature passes the Appropriations Act, the Governor has the power to veto specific appropriations (line items), or Appropriation Language segments, which may have been added by the Legislature as a result of its review of the Governor's proposals. The line-item veto allows the Governor to reshape the final Budget and ensure that appropriations do not exceed the certified level of revenues. (As part of the final Appropriations Act, the Governor must "certify" the level of revenues in order to meet the constitutional requirement of a balanced budget.) The final approved budget, which includes the Governor's line item vetoes and certification of revenues, is the Appropriations Act. Once the budget is enacted, it becomes an effective tool for fiscal control and monitoring program effectiveness.

As part of the first execution phase of the Budget process, and to ensure that State monies are spent according to the intent of the Budget, all state departments are required by appropriations language included in the Budget to submit quarterly spending plans to the Office of Management and Budget and the Legislative Budget Officer.

HOW THE BUDGET IS ORGANIZED

The New Jersey State Budget is divided into five major sections, which provide information on a broad range of budget related topics, including anticipated state revenues, gubernatorial policies and new initiatives, and agency programmatic achievements. The major sections are described below:

- 1.) The Governor's Budget Message describes in general terms the policies and new initiatives as well as the reductions and efficiencies proposed in the Budget. The Governor's Message generally includes a description of the economic situation within the state and the expected impact of projected economic trends on the state's fiscal condition. The Governor's Message may also include broad programmatic goals for each of the individual State departments or major segments of the government as well as policy directions for the upcoming fiscal year.
- 2.) The Summaries of Appropriations Section of the Budget includes a selection of tables and charts designed to summarize the Governor's recommendations and highlight the major changes included within the proposed Budget. For instance, the Budget in Brief provides a summary of total revenues and recommendations for each of the state's major fund categories, such as the General Fund, Casino Revenue Fund, and Property Tax Relief Fund. This section also includes a number of fiscal tables which explain the Governor's recommendations at various, significant levels of aggregation.

Summary of Appropriation Recommendations

- . Summary of Appropriation Recommendations by Fund
- . Summary of Appropriation Recommendations by Organization
- . Summary of Appropriations by Category or Purpose
- . Summary of Appropriations by Statewide Program
- . Appropriations – Major Increases
- . Appropriations – Major Decreases

Also included within this section is the Major Highlights of the fiscal year 1998 Budget, which discusses the major programmatic and operational impact of the budget proposals.

Additional summaries of major increases and decreases, and charts and graphs depicting significant programmatic or fiscal trends included within the FY 1998 Budget are also included within this section.

- 3.) The Summaries of Revenues, Expenditures and Fund Balances section provides an overview of the state's economy and revenue outlook and the impact that anticipated economic trends will have on the state's revenue estimates. The tables included within this section highlight the state's major revenue sources, such as the income tax, sales tax, corporation tax, etc., and provide year to year comparisons and projections for the fiscal year 1998 budget year. Most of the schedules and exhibits in this section are displayed by Fund. For the purposes of state financial accounting, funds are accounting entities which segregate financial resources according to the purposes for which they may be used.

This section includes four "major schedules" which provide detail of actual and estimated revenues and expenditures by department. Within each department, individual revenue sources are shown, including those which are dedicated to support specific functions or programs and are derived from fees, fines, or charges for services, which are established by law or agency regulation.

Schedule I depicts anticipated revenue which, together with estimated beginning Undesignated Fund Balance (Surplus), provide the resources for the recommended appropriations (Expenditures Budgeted) summarized in Schedule III.

Schedules II & IV enumerate estimated revenues and expenditures on an as received basis over and above the general revenues and specific line item appropriations shown in Schedules I & III.

- 4.) The Budget Recommendations section is the largest section of the Budget and includes the greatest detail on proposed appropriations. It is divided into categories based on the source and use of Appropriations; and is organized by Governmental Branch and sorted in alphabetical order by Agencies or Executive departments. The major subdivisions of this section are summarized below:

- a. Direct State Services
- b. Grants in Aid
- c. State Aid
- d. Capital Construction
- e. Debt Service
- f. Dedicated Funds
- g. Language Provisions
- h. Revolving and Other Funds

4.a.) Budget Recommendations – Overview

Each of the sub-sections of the Budget Recommendation section follow a consistent hierarchical order – Department, Program Category, Statewide Program, Organization and/or Program Class. Individual departmental presentations are grouped by

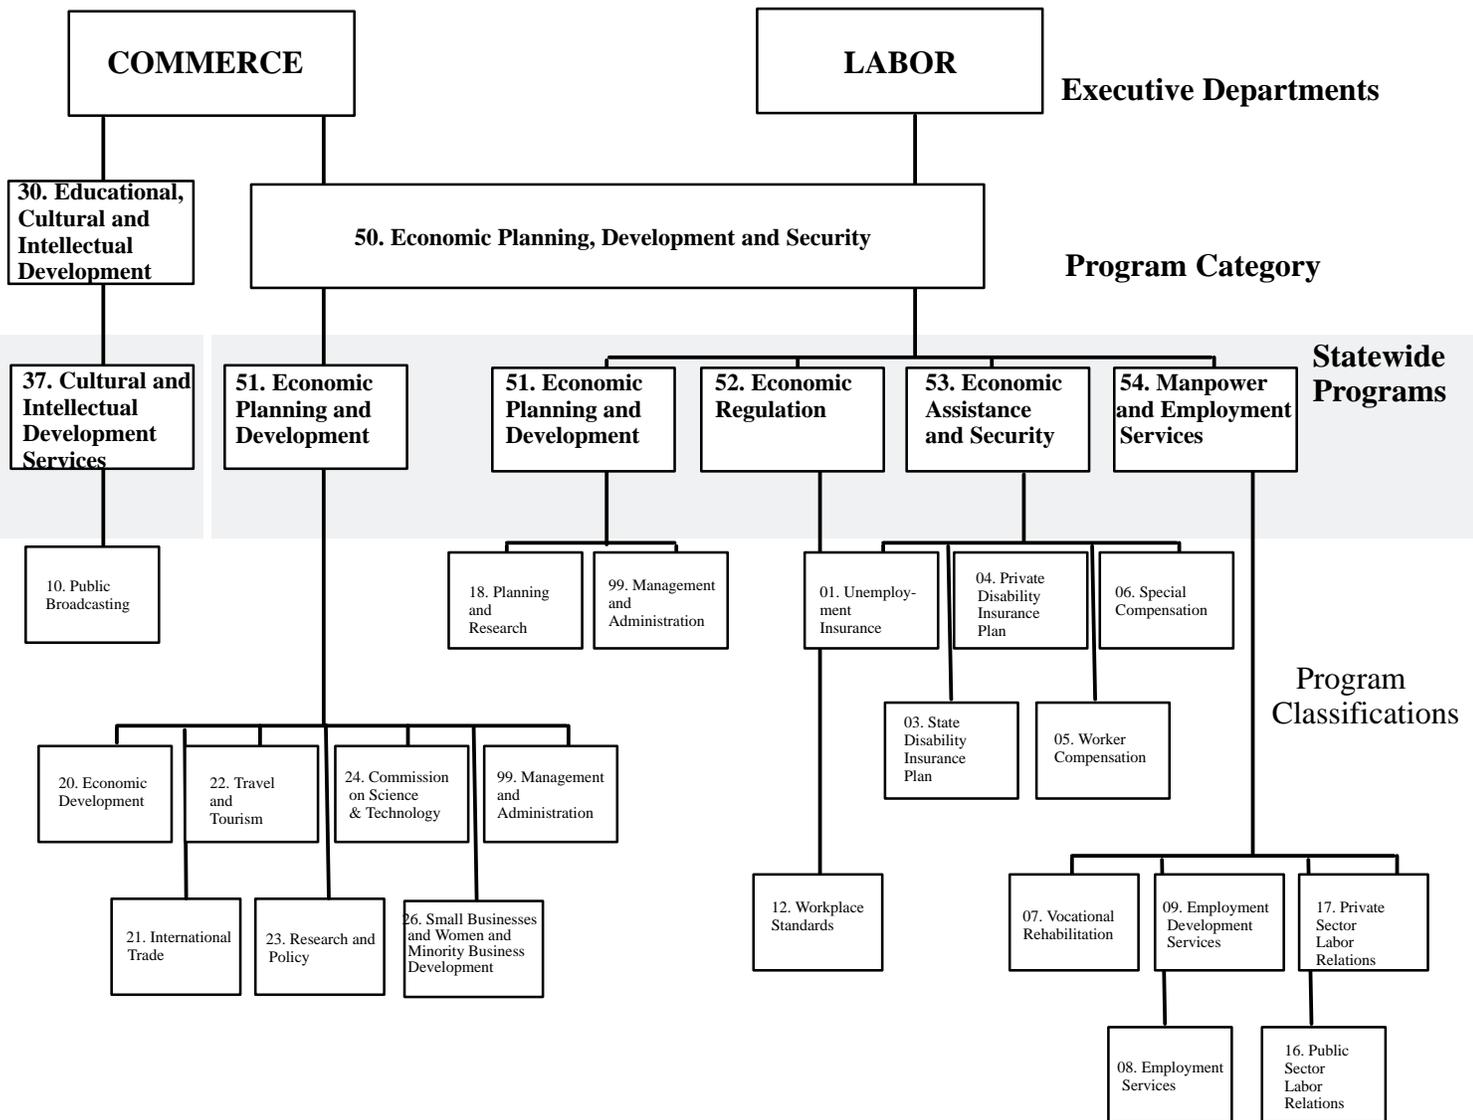

READER'S GUIDE

“Statewide Program” which represent a high level, functional grouping of related programs contributing to a broad statewide objective. Statewide Programs generally span several departments. Examples of Statewide Programs include “Public Safety and Criminal Justice,” “Natural Resource Management,” and “Parole and Community Programs.”

Below Statewide Programs, the Budget presentation is further broken down into “Program Classes,” which represent a lower level, operating program function, consisting of closely related activities with identifiable objectives or goals. Examples of program classes include “Water Supply Management, Forestry Management, Shellfish and Marine Fisheries Management,” in the Department of Environmental Protection. Detailed descriptions of agency program classifications are provided at the beginning of each statewide program presentation within a department, along with objectives for the entire statewide program.

In the Department of Labor for example, all programs are grouped under the broad Program Category of Economic Planning, Development and Security. They are further divided into the following four Statewide Programs: 1.) Economic Planning and Development, 2.) Economic Regulation, 3.) Economic Assistance and Security, and 4.) Manpower and Employment Services. Each of these Statewide Programs are made up of a number of individual program classes. Program Categories and Statewide Programs generally span multiple departments.

The programmatic hierarchy of two State departments, Commerce and Labor, is shown below. Note that the Statewide Program, Economic Planning and Development, is common to both.

4.B.) Budget Recommendations – Sub-Section Descriptions

Detailed descriptions of the sub-sections of the Budget Recommendations Section are provided below:

- a.) Direct State Services is the portion of the Budget that relates to the appropriations and expenditures that support the operations of the State agencies and programs. Most of the costs associated with State employee salaries, pension contributions, office supplies, printing, and equipment and maintenance is budgeted in the Direct State Services presentation. This section includes the most detailed description of agency programs, including programmatic evaluation data. The Direct State Services presentation also includes information on federal funds and other related appropriations.

Each statewide program presentation includes a sampling of agency Evaluation Data, which provide comparative measurements of agency workload, effectiveness, and/or efficiency. This information shows the impact of the recommended funding level on an agency's activities.

In addition to programmatic descriptions and agency evaluation data, the Direct State Services presentation also includes information on the number of employees (past years and current year) and funded positions (budget year) within each department. The actual number of employees may be less than the number of positions and is dependent upon authorized hiring levels and other factors. Position and Personnel data are generally summarized to the program classification level, and include information on the current year, two prior years, and a projection for the budget request year.

The Appropriations Data portion of the Direct State Services section includes the detailed funding recommendations by program classification, and by object of expenditure. Objects of expenditure include salaries, materials and supplies (paper, printing, etc.), services other than personal (travel, telephones, postage, micro computer software, consultant services) maintenance, equipment and special purpose accounts. By examining the incremental changes in the program class recommendations vis-a-vis prior year spending levels and other programs, readers will be able to ascertain the relative priority that is being placed on specific agency program activities.

One final, significant item of this portion of the budget is the Appropriation Language Provisions included at the end of the statewide program or departmental presentations. These language provisions are as significant as the fiscal recommendations because they provide the Department, the Legislature, or the Director of the Division of Budget and Accounting with specific budget and/or spending authority or establish limits on such authority. It is through this language, for example, that prior year balances are appropriated for current year expenses or lapsed, and that departments are provided with incentives that allow them to keep fine or fee revenue above a specific predetermined amount.

- b.) Grants-In-Aid follows the same tabular format as the Direct State Services presentation and shows the Governor's recommendations for funding of grants made to individuals and various public and private agencies, for services that are considered the overall responsibility of the State but that are provided by third parties. The largest grant-in-aid program is Medicaid, but others include subsidy assistance to NJ Transit, and tuition assistance programs. The programmatic descriptions for these grants are provided in the Direct State Services display, although the recommended appropriation language provisions affecting these grants is included in this section. A summary of all State Grants-In-Aid, by department, is provided on page E-1.
- c.) The State Aid section comprises recommendations for payments by the State to or on behalf of a local unit of government (county, municipality, or school district) to assist this local government in carrying out its responsibilities. The largest state appropriations are for aid to local schools. The programmatic descriptions for state aid are also provided in the Direct State Services display, although recommended appropriations language affecting state aid is included in this section.
- d.) The Capital Construction section contains the recommendations, by capital project within department, for current (pay-as-you-go) projects, as opposed to those funded by long-term bonds. A capital project includes the acquisition of land, new structures and equipment, and other projects whose estimated cost of land, planning, furnishing and equipping is estimated to be $50,000 or more. Projects or acquisitions under $50,000 are appropriated in the maintenance accounts in the Direct State Services Section.

READER'S GUIDE

- e.) The Debt Service section shows the amounts necessary to pay principal and interest due on capital projects financed by general obligation bonds of the State. The primary method for financing of capital projects is through the sale of bonds. No debt can be issued by the State without approval by a majority of the legally qualified voters. This section also includes a brief description of the active bond issues financed by current Debt Service appropriations. Historically, New Jersey Debt Service payments average approximately three percent of the total General Fund appropriations.
 - f.) Dedicated Funds comprise direct state services, grants-in-aid, and state aid programs funded from one of four major funds dedicated by the Constitution for specific purposes. The Property Tax Relief Fund, financed by the personal income tax, provides aid to local schools and municipalities as well as the Homestead Rebate Program, which offsets a portion of an individual's property taxes. The Casino Revenue Fund, the proceeds of a tax upon casino revenues, finances new or expanded programs for the elderly and the disabled. The Casino Control Fund represents the cost of regulating the casino industry, as charged to that industry. And the Gubernatorial Elections Fund consists of designated contributions by taxpayers for the public financing of gubernatorial elections.
 - g.) Revolving Funds are established for State entities which are not provided with direct appropriations, but rather operate from fees charged for services or commodities provided to other State agencies. Examples include print shops, laundries, and information processing services.
- 5.) The Appendix includes Statements of Estimated Revenues, Expenditures and Fund Balances of the State's Special Revenue, Capital Projects and Trust Funds (excluding Pension Trust Funds). The statements include the actual revenues and expenditures for the fiscal year ended June 30, 1996, presented in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, as well as estimated amounts for 1997 and 1998.

Special Revenue Funds (Appendix 1A) are used to account for proceeds of specific revenue sources (other than special assessments, expendable trusts or for major capital projects) that are legally restricted to expenditures for specified purposes.

Capital Projects Funds (Appendix 1B) are used to account for financial resources to be used for the acquisition or construction of major capital facilities for State use. Funds granted to other units of government for facilities are not classified as Capital Project Funds and are included as expenditures of Special Revenue Funds. Various Capital Projects Funds include funds both for capital facilities for State use and for grants to other units of government.

Trust Funds (Appendix 1C) are used to account for assets held by the State in a trustee capacity for individuals, private organizations, other governments and/or other funds.
